Motivated by careful planning and constant thought, the seemingly ceaseless hammers of progress created a school, a school unique in structure and beyond its time in design. Architecturally, Acalanes initiated a new type of school. Built entirely on one level, its layout was designed to facilitate change and take advantage of the beauty of its location. The Museum of Modern Art in New York awarded Acalanes as one of the two outstanding buildings in the United States of 1940.

LOCAL ARCHITECTS WIN DESIGN HONORS

The Acalanes High School, Lafayette, Contra Costa County, and the City Hall in Fresno have been chosen as the most outstanding examples of recent architectural work by American architects and builders, according to word received from the Museum of Modern Art, New York.

The two structures were designed and constructed by Franklin Kump and Associates.

This is the Acalanes story. It is a story of twenty-five years of growth and progress—a story of athletic victories and defeats—a story of academic challenges and accomplishments. It is your story—part of your tradition—part of your history. It began with a construction sign in the midst of a vast tomato field.

After the war, the United States and the Soviet Union became the two superpowers. They had different political systems and ideologies. The United States was a capitalist country with a democratic government. The Soviet Union was a communist country with a centralized planned economy. The two countries competed for influence and power, leading to the Cold War. The Cold War was a period of political tension and conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union, but it did not involve direct military conflict. The two countries engaged in proxy wars, such as the Korean War and the Vietnam War, and they also engaged in a nuclear arms race. The Cold War ended with the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991, and the United States became the sole superpower.

Tomato picking at noon became the students' contribution to the war effort. Although the students were carefully supervised by teachers, teachers often became the targets of tomatoes hurled down the halls. In addition to this recreational aspect, the war helped Acalanes in a more concrete way. The war provided the school with a swimming pool. The last vestige of the W.P.A. paid the labor costs for the construction of the pool. But the war ended, and Acalanes was left with a shell. Eventually the pool was completed, but as time progressed and better methods of building pools were developed, our pool was constantly being improved.

Progress had influenced the life at Acalanes. Tastes and ideals changed. Girls in blue and white uniforms eating lunch on the school's lawns were replaced long ago. But progress hadn't affected certain aspects of Acalanes life. Students still rushed frantically down the halls. Yelling continued to be the only means of communication between students running to their next class. Students have been the primary concern of Acalanes. There has always been a mutuality of sharing and giving between student and faculty devised to enrich a student beyond academics.

Acalanes' story is a proud story, one of change and dedication.

Because the growth of an outstanding curriculum owes a great deal to his support of new ideas .

Because as administrator he remains understanding of the problems of individuals .

Because his warmth and sincerity have aroused the respect of students, teachers, and the community

Because he has given twenty-five years of service to Acalanes High School as teacher, dean of boys, and principal

The 1965 Aklan marks our 25th Anniversary. It depicts our growth from a small school into a highly acclaimed academic plant.

The Acalanes story is more than a record of increased enrollment, improved teaching facilities, academic achievements, and athletic victories. The real measure of our school is found in its students, former and present, and their contribution to the community and the nation. How rich is Acalanes' record! Returning students tell me Acalanes has helped them to develop their own high standards and to become conscious of the needs of others. It is here, they say, that they first become aware that total involvement brings inner growth.

During its twenty-five years Acalanes has become a heritage of tradition and of aspiration which students have carried out into the community and nation and which, I know, will continue.

Stanley W. Walgren
Principal

Twenty-five years in a rapidly growing area brings many changes. The Acalanes High School District now serves more thousands of students than there were hundreds when it was formed. The needs and desires of the students for academic opportunities and activities are fundamentally the same, but both programs have had to expand to keep pace with the increased numbers, and the resulting greater variety of interests.

For twenty-five years the students have been responsible for, and proud of the high standards and outstanding reputation of Acalanes in both areas. Keep up the good work.

Vera M. Richardson
Dean of Girls

The student activity program over the past 25 years at Acalanes has continually matched the interest and needs of the students. In retrospect we have found that situations are similar and that only the faces and styles have changed. Dancing has always been a popular activity for teen-agers and still is, the faces are different and the styles! Well—I never danced like that when I was a teen-ager. The opportunity for activities is always here for the benefit of the Acalanes Student. Strengthen your high school experience by belonging to a school club, by attending dances and athletic events, and by being a member of an athletic team.

Robert E. Stevens
Dean of Boys

Counseling

Counselors discussed personal and scholastic problems with each individual. They provided understanding and guidance, and offered their assistance to students in choosing academic courses suited to the students' interests and capabilities. Programs were arranged according to aims and abilities.

Fine Arts

The Fine Arts Department consisted of two elements. First, music was designed to give the student a background of special musical knowledge and abilities. Modern Dance the second element, helped to develop skills in rhythmic activities. Varied program of music were performed throughout the year. The girls involved in Modern Dance performed for the annual Christmas Program and Musance.

The Art Department tried to give the student an over-all view of the arts as the basic instructions in the use of medium and design. First and second-year students were given an introduction to materials and the fundamentals of drawing. More advanced students extended their experiences while concentrating in watercolor designs.

Senior History

Four years seemed an eternity, but in retrospect, these years were only too short, and on June 17th, graduation brought an end to the experiences of the 25th graduating class at Acalanes. Although the seniors looked forward to the new opportunities awaiting them in the life they were about to enter, they also remembered the past four years at Acalanes.

As Freshmen, they were welcomed and given an introduction to the school on Frosh Orientation Day. Then, they waited enthusiastically for the first day of school with more self-confidence. With its arrival came both excitement and fear. But, a quick adjustment period followed, and the freshmen soon found themselves active in the typical school of activities, studies, and government. They elected Bob Stoops president, Ed Kendall vice-president, Hope Julius social secretary, Cathy Lund secretary, and Bob Harris treasurer. Under their leadership, the freshmen had a most successful Frosh Frolic. Peppermint Twist Party had Scotty Scott and his Combo as its band, and Johnny Mathis' brother, Mike, as its special guest star. Highlighting an evening of dancing and fun was an extremely popular twist contest. The year ended with the freshman acquainted with Acalanes' two-hour finals and new grading systems, and anxiously waiting for summer vacation.

The Class of '65 returned triumphantly in September as one-year veterans of Acalanes. Heading the sophomore class were Woody Underhill, president; Mike Yeomans, vice-president; Laurel Stanley, social secretary; Leslie Grant, secretary; Jeanne Morrison, treasurer; and Jeanne Olson, citizenship representative. They continued their social success with the memorable Soph Hop, Surfer's Stomp.

Presiding over the junior class were Dale Speyer, president; Bruce Neighbor, vice-president; Julie Smith, social secretary; Sue McMeans, secretary; Gretchen Jacobsen, treasurer; and Hope Julius, citizenship representative. With their cooperation, the junior class planned the Junior Prom, Orchids in the Snow. The old gym was beautifully decorated in a white and violet color scheme. Green Christmas trees were flocked white, and crepe paper orchids, white streamers, and an artificial waterfall added to the colorful scenery and atmosphere. The success of this dance was renewed in the Junior Extra, Please Don't Eat the Daisies. The month of May found the juniors excited over the coming student body elections, and prepared to take over Senior Hall as well as the student government.

The many diverse senior activities were well co-ordinated by the senior class officers: Don Querio, president; Jack Jay, vice-president; Laurel Stanley, social secretary; Kathy Hamlin, secretary; Cherie Olson, treasurer; Annette Betancourt and Jeanette Armstrong, citizenship representatives. 1965 was a year of much activity and excitement. Senior sucker sales played an important part in raising money for the senior class. Homecoming was climaxed by the seniors winning the float contest with their entry, "Cinderella." Reigning over the float were its three princesses, Holly Borowiak, Hope Julius, and Laurel Stanley. Later, Holly Borowiak was crowned 1964 Homecoming Queen at the Homecoming Dance. The senior play, The Importance of Being Earnest, demonstrated the acting ability, and time spent on this production by the senior class. The seniors continued their prosperous year with the Senior Extra, which had a Sadie Hawkins theme. On May 21st, all seniors enjoyed the Senior Banquet, "Auld Lang Syne" which had the Beau Brummels as entertainment. Senior Bermuda Day was a day of fun and games. Then came the lovely Senior Ball, "Bon Voyage." Graduation night was crystallized by the Senior All-Night at The Red Balloon.

Penny Prentice and Jeanne Olsen worked on the Senior Ball decorations.

With graduation drawing near, the class of 1965 sailed from Acalanes Harbor at nine o'clock on the fifth of June. As the couples arrived their cars were parked by junior boys dressed in tuxedoes. The passengers were escorted up the gangplank and doors opened for them by junior boys also dressed in tuxedoes. Their ship, decked in red, white, and blue was bound on this nautical night for such romantic spots as Europe, South America, the Orient, and Polynesia with its torch-lit tropical garden. Dancing to the music of Ben Metzger's band, the couples soon forgot that they were in the school cafeteria and patio which had been transformed into this festive atmosphere by their fellow classmates.

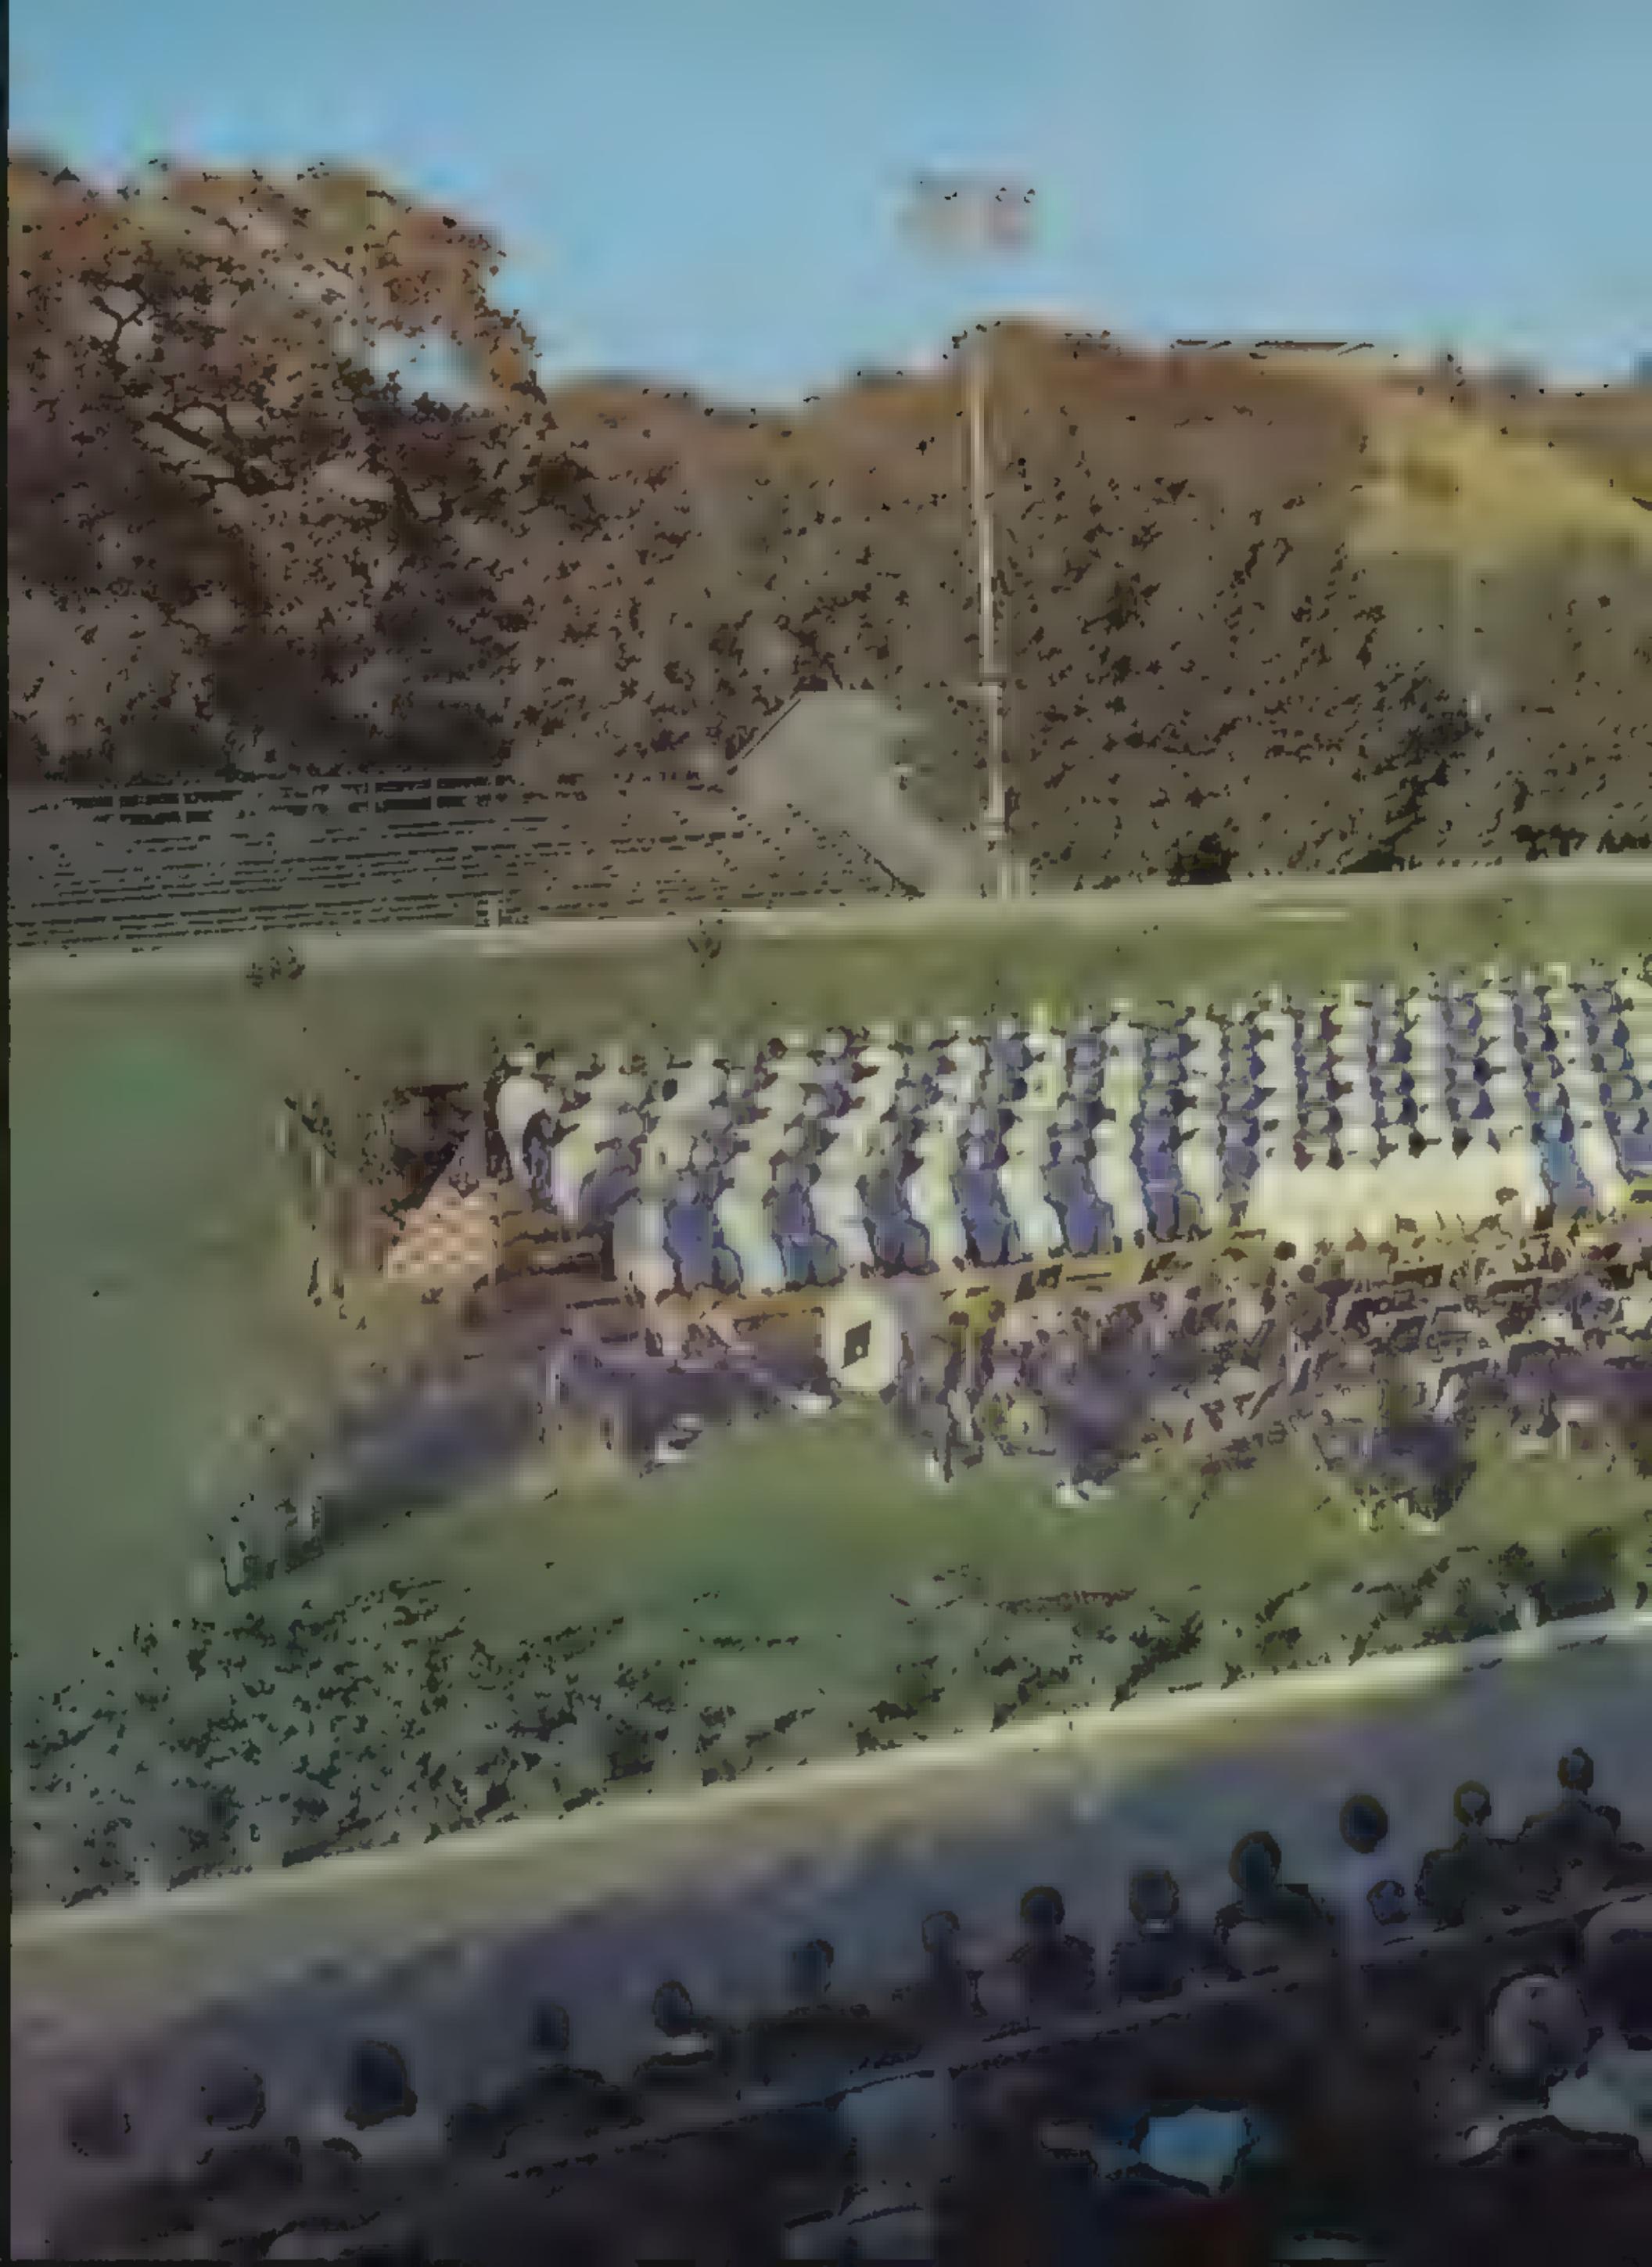

When the voyage came to an end at midnight and the passengers departed, they left behind them a night they would long remember, a true BON VOYAGE

JUNIOR PROM

The spirited and talented Junior Class made their prom a great success this year. Janie Stone, the class social secretary, directed the effort made by all committees. The decorations were centered around the theme Wonderland by Night. An enchanting scene was created beneath a tattered stars and a blue spotlight. The bids hung from a large evergreen tree in the center of the dance floor. Around it stood other white trees and winter sleighs. With lush greenery hanging from the walls, the scene was complete. The large and enthusiastic crowd danced to the music of the Nightcaps.

The election of Head Year Leader as a Student Body Officer was the most important decision made by the Fall Semester of Student Council. Reversing an Alumnae trust in the Council, attending the class constitution by adding a Right to a Non-Racist Student Body Officer. Prompted by a concern for the safety of the grounds, the Council enacted a solution to the problem. The school's property committee brunch when the grounds were disordered.

The idea for a leadership class was approved by the spring Student Council. This class would allow student body officers and other class officers a period to discuss pending issues and to come up with recommendations. The idea was to have the faculty, students and a new band system with speakers situated in the cafeteria, Library, and Student Square. This system would give the students noon music and would be available for other uses.

Fleur de Lys

Fourth-year French students constituted the French club, Fleur de Lys. This club is interested in learning and understanding French customs. Every activity of Fleur de Lys, including a beautiful candle-light initiation, was patiently directed by Mrs. Landsmann.

Spanish Honorary

Spanish Honorary encouraged Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Spanish students to explore Spanish traditions. Guided by Miss Sifuentes, Spanish Honorary earned funds by sponsoring a cake sale and a slave sale. Each member had the opportunity to visit Santa Cruz on the annual Spanish Honorary field trip.

Block A

Comprised of lettermen from nine various sports, the main purpose of Block A is essentially the promotion of cooperation and sportsmanship. The group also provides not only an example to the student body but also to dormitory students. The lettermen are involved in many of this year's activities. The annual Father-Son Lettermen's Banquet again proved to be a great success, as did the field trip to San Jose State in the spring.

Rally's activities began as soon as school started with the organization of football games at the time. The height of the year was the winter meeting. Between 1952 and 1953, W.A. Jones jump from sixth to second in league sportsmanship rating. Much of this was due to the tremendous effort put out by Rally to promote school spirit. The officers did a good job organizing Rally's functions. President Bob Harris, and later Leslie Grant who took over when Bob moved, performed the heavy duties demanded by the office. Leslie and Chris Cammisa both served as vice-president and were in charge of carrying out all of Rally's duties. Ginny Deuschle, as secretary, kept records of all activities and treasurer Don Ormsbee was in charge of all the financial aspects of Rally. With the approach of spring sports, new officers were elected as instructed by the new constitution passed to improve the organization and effectiveness of Rally. The year ended with the enthusiastic support of golf, tennis, swimming, and baseball.

American Field Service

A BUSY YEAR FOR A.F.S.

The year of 1964-1965 was a busy one for the American Field Service. Under the direction of Ms. and Mr. Garvey, the annual A.F.S. drive netted an impressive amount of money. The money will go to the American Field Service, the American Red Cross, and the American Cancer Society.

On October 18th, Mr. and Mrs. Garvey were honored with a visit from Ed. and Mrs. Garvey. Mr. and Mrs. Garvey are the President and First Lady of the American Field Service. They came to visit from Costa Rica to substantiate the American Field Service's strong and active organization.

ASSIF—AN ACALANES STUDENT

ASSIF is a senior at Acalanes High School. In instant I pictured America as a place where people are kind and friendly. I my first year at Acalanes I had with very pleasant memories. Many things here were different from my country. One of the things that I liked most was the weather. It was not as hot as in my country. At first I did not like the American food. After a few days, we began to like it. However, we miss the food in our country. Acalanes is a good school.

We are very happy to have new students for making this year a most memorable and happy one for me.

SHEPARD, BRUCE—Foreign Exchange Student 3

1, 2; Language Lab Assistant 1, 2, 3, Block A 2, 3, 4
Swimming 1, 2, 3, 4

Bruce Shepard spent a year in Thailand as that country's first A.F.S. exchange student. His trip was part of a plan to introduce Southeast Asia to the American Field Service program.

For a year South Africa was my classroom, and my teacher blacks, whites, gardeners, and lawyers—were all with whom I came in contact. I want to thank everyone especially my family and my sister
Mary (right), for a wonderful year.
I learned that the lesson of South Africa is one of tolerance, love, and understanding. This above all, is what I brought home with me.

Students Neila English, Dody Dornsite, Phil Gilmore and Lynne English showed talent in folk singing. They performed at dances in classrooms, at assemblies and during leisure time.

Connie Lanham is not only a school majorette, but she holds the Senior State Championship of California for twirling, is Miss Majorette, and is the Drum Majorette for the State Championship Drumcorps.

Blueprint

The Blueprint Staff, advised by Mr. Mayes, depicted the many interesting facets of Acalanes. In addition to informing its readers of important news, such features as "Heap of the Month," "This Is Acalanes," and "Senior Profiles" added color to the paper. To the casual observer, the Blueprint room seemed unorganized; for most members of the staff were out reporting and those inside were frantically trying to meet their deadline.

With new and varied routines our pompon girls provided entertainment at rallies and games. Their skill was especially obvious when compared to pompon girls from other schools.

During the summer, the yell leaders developed a highly-polished style which won most of the awards at the Squaw Valley yell leading camp. Their spirit stimulated the cheer sections during the football and basketball seasons.

Besides practicing with the band, the majorettes spent many after-school hours perfecting their routines. Spectators at rallies and half-time shows during football and basketball games saw evidence of the girls' work.

Varsity Football

Youth predominated Coach George Cockerton's 1964 Don's Football team. Despite a number of experienced seniors, the Don's lacked, for the first time in many years, experienced players to back up these seniors, a major contribution to this disappointing season. The only bright spot on this year's eleven was that Acalanes can look forward to next season with a more experienced line and an equally fast backfield. With a returning nucleus of Tucker, McDougall, Bullen, and Knudson, the Don's should not miss senior halfback Tietig, nor linemen Jay, Toll, and Wakeman.

Frosh Football

The Frosh football team to be introduced this year. After a slow start an undefeated record has been attained. The Frosh team is the best in the league. The strength of the team will be the fact that they beat all of their opponents by a margin of at least 10 points. With the Frosh team's future looking bright, the future of the Frosh football team is secure. Among the leaders of the Frosh team are quarterback Chuck Nagy, Denny Johnson and linemen Ken Rosso and Dave Chase.

Varsity Basketball

Despite exhibiting a frustrating finish in a tightly contested league struggle, the 1964-65 Acalanes Varsity Basketball team made a strong record this year. The Dons, starting in the second half of the year, maintained a first place finish at the start of the season, hustled their way to fourteen straight victories, a first place finish in the annual Del Valle Invitational Tournament, and a spot in the top ten prep rankings in California. Unfortunately their string was soon broken as Del Valle's first place record was broken in the first game of the league championship. Never regaining their early season form, the Dons lost not only two of their six remaining contests, but their first-place position as well. Finishing a close second, Acalanes shouldn't be disappointed because of the perplexity of this year's league which saw them being challenged by Miramonte and Piedmont, the latter the ultimate victor.

Paced immensely by the performances of two great basketball players, the Dons finally ended up the season with a very respectable 18-3 record; both first team All-American Steve Lee and All-American Mike Liles, the players whose performances were the best in the team to be ever seen in a number one year. The other two stars were also led by Jim Tucker who received All-American Honors. Dons players Steve Lee, Ken Short, Jim Gilmour, and Bob Walgren were the three giving the Dons one of the better teams in the east. Walgren was a guard, men's starting center, Tucker an S. Lee, who have in excellent hands to regain the Foothill League crown.

Coached by George Cockerton, the J.V. Baseball team had compiled a perfect league record by mid-season, and was expected to win the F.A.L. crown. Cross Country

Despite a disappointing season in Cross-Country this year, the Dons almost invariably were assured of one first place in every meet, thanks to the tremendous distance ability of Ron Elliott. Ron's top position in the Foothill League Meet enabled him to compete in the finals of the North Coast Sectional Meet. The loss of Elliott might not be a disadvantage to next year's squad, however. With such new faces as John Nunan, Bob Mayfield, Dave Elliott, Roger Boothe, and Bob Walgren, the Dons could sport the greatest team depth and ability of cross-country runners ever seen.

Varsity Track

Lack of talent kept Coach Charles Eaton's trackmen out of championship contention this year despite the fact that they possessed a few outstanding individuals. Mike Ron Elliott helped the Dons immensely as he has been doing for the past three years in both track and cross country. Although only a junior high jumper Bob Riner set a school record with a leap of over 10 feet. Squadman John Merrill, Bob Eames, Rick Pinger and Mike Johnson gave the Dons assistance in the sprint, hurdles, pole vault and distances respectively. Coach Eaton can look for help from this year's B squad in his attempt to place his squad back in a position to challenge Piedmont for the Foothill League crown.

In spite of the poor showing of the Varsity track team this year, the B track team proved to be one of the strongest Acalanes has ever fielded. Sporting both ability and depth, the B's recovered from their early season drubbing at the hands of El Cerrito and swept the San Ramon Relays, scoring almost twice as many points as second-place Piedmont.

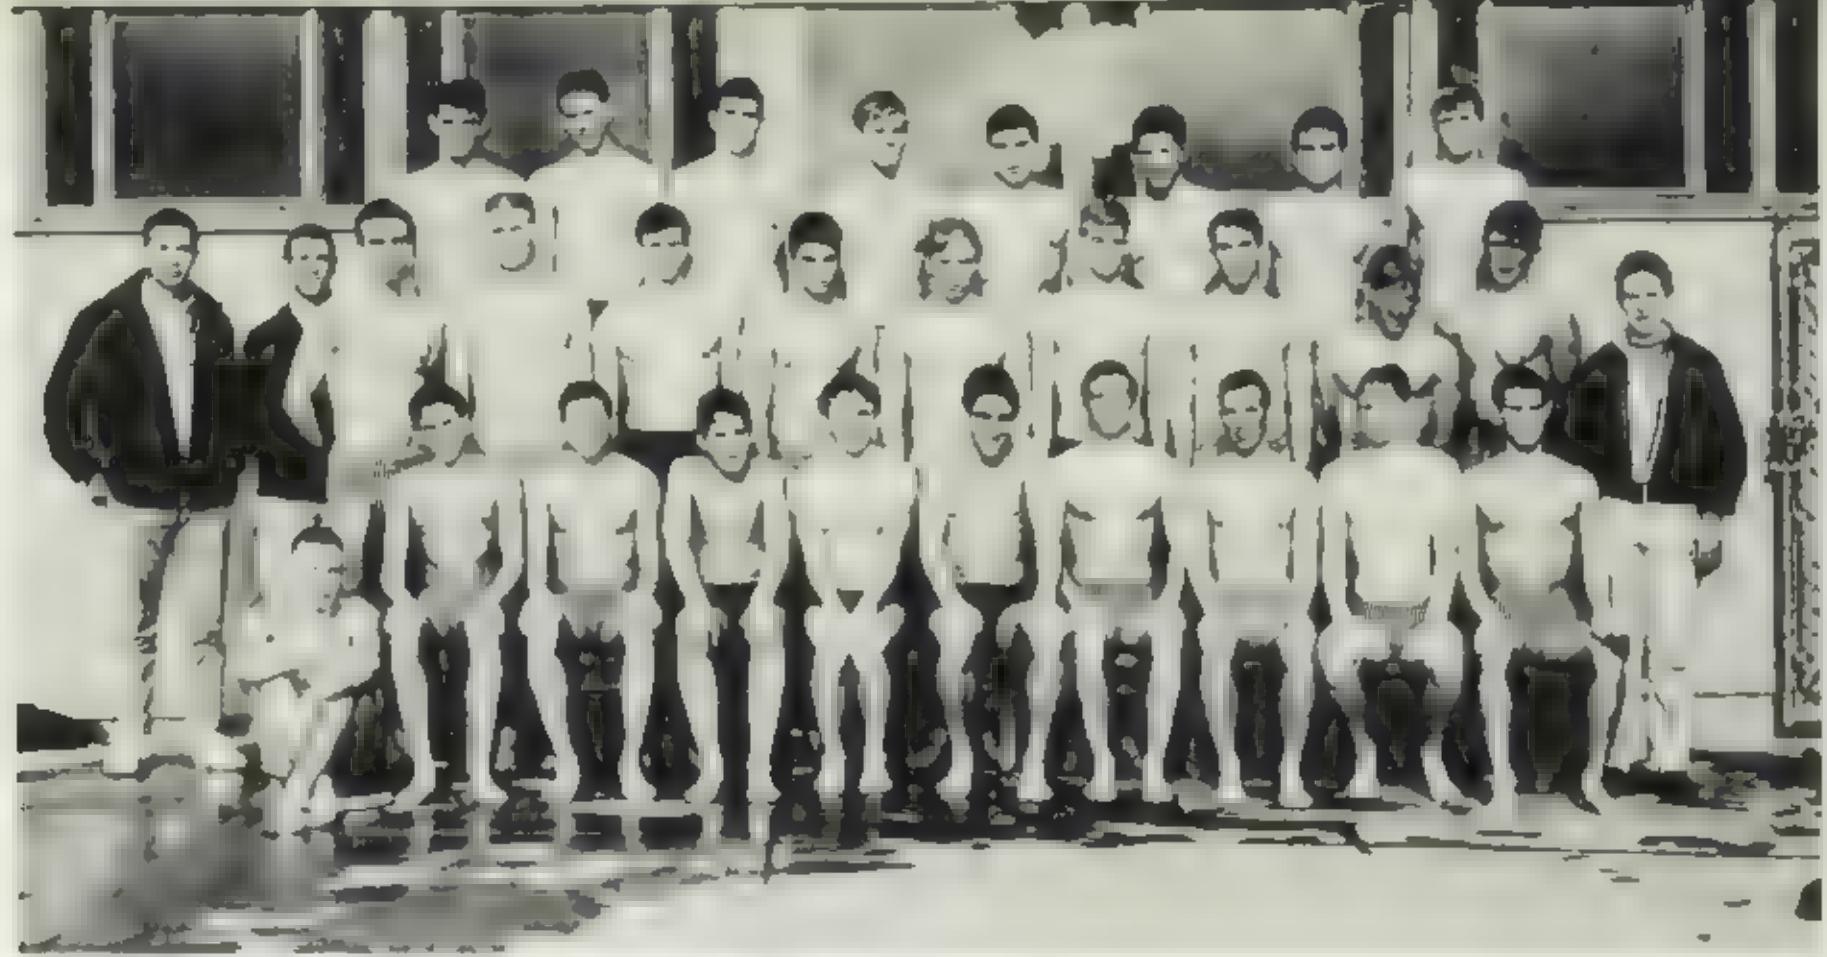

Leading the B's in their quest for the San Ramon Relays were sprinters Dick Clarkson and Ramon, distance hurdlers Dan Jones and Jim Smith, who both ran, jumped and high jumped, and distance men Mike Pickett and Dave Elliott.

Varsity Swimming

Exemplifying an Acalanes tradition of excellent swimming teams, the 1965 Varsity squad stroked their way to an impressive early season record. Although losing a few close contests, the team as a whole demonstrated excellent depth, featuring some of the best swimmers in the area. Individually, Trey Fisher, butterfly and captain of the Dons and Tom MacPherson showed superb swimming at this year's meet for the third consecutive year. MacPherson shattered all existing breast stroke records and appeared ready to face anyone, as did his teammate Darren Webster. Other noteworthy individuals include Darren Webster, a sophomore backstroker who followed MacPherson's pace. Mark Cheney a free-styler, and divers Mike Pitts and Lanny Howland. With an over-abundance of lower-classmen to fill the graduation of some fine seniors, Acalanes will probably surpass any existing standards next year.

Tennis

Reporting two state ranked tennis players—sophomore Rick Goggin and Jeff Borwick—the Contra Costa team was one again in the thick of the title race. After a commendable year, returning with some of the Bay Area's toughest team, the better quest for the championship was twofold. By far the best hope is Jim McLennan. Never three, but far on the way to next year with enthusiasm for his return. Borwick and Goggin, number three man Jim McLennan as well as the rest of the team with the exception of senior Bruce Neighbor, Dan Rickman and Dave Lewis, will be returning.

This year's golf squad had another successful season. Through midseason, the divoters were tied for the league championship, as well as fielding a 5-1 record in pre-season play. G.A.A.

The G.A.A. had an active year. Their activities ranged from indoor to outdoor sports. The highlight of the year was the Del Valle Basketball Tournament. G.A.A.'s bowling team practiced every week, as did other seasonal sports.

Donna Hessey bowled a perfect strike in G.A.A. bowling practice

G.A.A. swimmers started the first lap of a freestyle race

At an after-school basketball game, the girls showed their basketball prowess

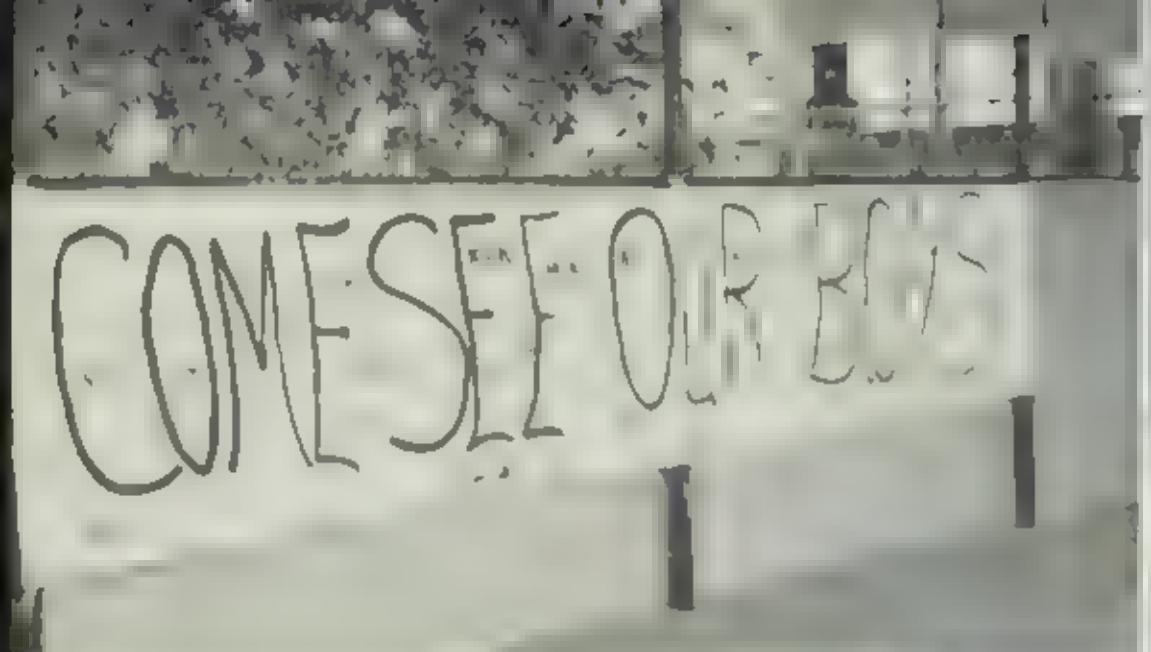

After each Friday night football or basketball game, the gym filled with music and students. Tremendously successful, the after-game dances were sponsored by the Parents Club. Often, to the enjoyment of all those present, the Breake entertained

Farewell

The 1965 Akian has tried to capture the entire school year's classroom activities, athletic events, and extra-curricular functions. This, however, is an impossible task. No photograph can possibly show the vitality of students' spirit in school life. Acalanes is a hollow shell which comes to life with the arrival of the first student and comes to a close with the departure of the last student. Yet, in the memory of each graduating class, Acalanes is not remembered as an empty shell. It is remembered as a living, vibrant unit. The 1965 Akian, despite the impossibility of the task, has attempted to depict a living organism — Acalanes High School.
